FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wendy Word + forgiven Receive First Dove Nomination for Participation in Bluegrass Gospel Time

STERRETT, Alab. – Wendy Word + forgiven were honored to recently receive word that they have been nominated for their first Dove Award. The group was nominated for their participation in the Special Event Project of the Year nominee Bluegrass Gospel Time.

Bluegrass Gospel Time was released last year through Lamon Records and features Christian Country and bluegrass favorites like George Hamilton IV, Bluegrass Revival, Aver Harreld, Harvest Wind, Dave Moody, The Moody Brothers, George Hamilton V, Ricky Traywick, The Bradleys, and Honi Deaton & Dream, in addition to Wendy Word + forgiven.

“We are so thrilled that this project received this nomination,” mentioned Wendy Word. “We had a great time participating in it, and we are ecstatic that the Gospel Music Association decided to recognize it!”

Bluegrass Gospel Time can be found in Christian bookstores all across the country in addition to other Wendy Word + forgiven products.

The Dove Awards will be handed out in over 40 categories on Wednesday evening, April 25, 2007 at the Grand Ole Opry House in Nashville, Tennessee. More information on the Dove Awards can be found at <http://www.doveawards.com>.

Fans are encouraged to call their local radio station and request “I Just Feel Like Something Good Is About to Happen” at both Southern Gospel and Christian Country radio. The song was released to radio last month.
